A SAD CASE .- Julian Magruder, who kept a country store at Cherrydale, in the county, and is postmaster at that place, failed in business on Thursday and closed his store. His trouble at fected his mind and on Saturday he be came violently insane and his friends feared that he would kill himself or his wife and child. That night he was brought to this city, after being re-fused admittance to St. E izabeth, and was confined in comfortable quarters here till yesterday evening, when his friends came and took him back home where a commission will be held and he will be committed to an asylum. Magruder was held in high esteem in the county and his invalid wife has the sincere sympathy of all who know her.

DEATH OF E. E. MEREDITH.

Ex-Congressman Elisha E. Meredith He had been in ili health for some time, Hard Corner, near Fairfax and Princess but seemed to be on the road to recovery, and when in this city on the 18.b., on the occasion of the democratic convention, was apparently better then he land been for some years. All were taken to Warrenton yesterlay for ingraphed for at Atlantic City, but did not arrive for several hours after his father's death. The funeral will take place Wednesday. Mr. Meredith is survived by a widow, who was Miss Silvia Contee, of Maryland, and two sous, one of whom is sons, one of whom is a member of the Washington bar, Elisha E. Meredith was born in Sumter county, Alabama, on De ember 26, 1848. His parents removed to Virvinta when he was a small child. He received his education at the Hamplensidney College and was admitted to the bar in 1869. For seventeen years ne was the prosecuting attorney for Prince William county, and he served in the State senate from 1883 to 1887 He was a presidential elector in 1888 and represented his district in the Fifty-second, Fifty-third and Fifty-fourth Congresses. He was first elected to fill the unexpired term of Gen. W. H. F. Lee and was re-elected to the Fifty-third and Fifty-fourth Congresses without opposition. His death comes as a shock to the community where he was best knows and best loved. In his death his family have lost a devoted husband and a ten der father and the community a public spirited citizen.
